TYPES OF DATA PROCESSED

(N.B.: the section below must be carefully analyzed and agreed upon with the external company or consultant who created the site).

Navigation data

During normal operation, the IT systems and software procedures used to operate this website acquire some personal data whose transmission is implicit in the use of Internet communication protocols.

This information is not collected to be associated with identified data subjects, but by its very nature could, through processing and association with data held by third parties, allow users to be identified.

This category of data includes, for example, IP addresses or domain names of computers or other devices used by users connecting to the site, URI (Uniform Resource Identifier) addresses of requested resources, the time of the request, the method used to submit the request to the server, the size of the file obtained in response, the numerical code indicating the status of the response given by the server (successful, error, etc.) and other parameters relating to the user's operating system and IT environment.

This data is used for the sole purpose of obtaining anonymous statistical information on the use of the site and to check its correct functioning and is deleted immediately after processing.

Cookies

Technical cookies of the website

- Session cookies

Third-party technical cookies

- Anonymized Google Analytics

Data provided voluntarily by the user

The optional, explicit, and voluntary sending of e-mails to the addresses indicated on this site entails the subsequent acquisition of the sender's address, which is necessary to respond to requests, as well as any other personal data included in the message. Specific summary information is also provided or displayed in the sections of the site dedicated to particular services on request and, where appropriate, subject to the consent of the interested party.

PURPOSE OF THE PROCESSING AND OPTIONAL NATURE OF THE PROVISION OF DATA

Apart from what is specified for navigation data and technical cookies, the user is free to provide their personal data through the use of specific forms or modules on the website for sending information material or other communications and, more generally, for the purposes indicated in the relevant and specific information notices. Failure to provide such data may make it impossible to obtain what has been requested.

METHOD OF PROCESSING

Our Company, as data controller, and each of the external data processors identified above, will manage and store the personal data collected through the use of the website and its various functions, which can be activated at the user's request, using automated and/or paper-based tools for the time strictly necessary to achieve the purposes for which they were collected or voluntarily communicated by the user.

Specific security measures, as provided for in Article 32 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679, are observed to prevent data loss, illicit or incorrect use, and unauthorized access.

The data is managed only by personnel authorized by the data controller; if necessary, personal data related to the services provided may be processed by the company's personnel/consultant who handles the technical maintenance of the site, appointed as external data processor pursuant to Article 28 of Regulation 679.

Under no circumstances will the data be disclosed.

The aforementioned data will be used for marketing communications and personal user profiling (compilation of a "wish list").

RIGHTS OF DATA SUBJECTS

The subjects to whom the personal data processed refer are guaranteed all the rights referred to in Articles 15, 16, 17, and 18 of Regulation 679 (access with confirmation of the existence or otherwise of the processing of their data; rectification, erasure, and restriction of processing where applicable).

The data subject has the right to object to the processing of their data in any case, for legitimate reasons.
